HIND HAS
BIG ESTATE

Inventory Shows
Nearly Half a Million.

HUMPHREYS WILL CALL NEXT TERM

Murder Case Goes Over to August Term—Halt Trial Before
Robinson.

The late Robert Robson Hind left an estate in Hawaii valued at a little less than half a million dollars, according to the inventory filed yesterday by Robert Hind as executor.

The exact amount given in the inventory is $412,267.94, and this is divided as follows:

Real estate	$51,100.00
Personal property at Kohala	191,531.00
Hawaii	28,050.00
Plantation store at Kohala	1,198.41
Hawaii	8,000.00
Cash	50,790.00
Notes	28,203.38
Stock	50,143.70
Loans and mortgages	3,751.45
Life insurance
Outstanding accounts
Total	$412,267.94

The greater part of the real property belonging to the estate is located in Kohala district, Hawaii. The land there consists of 2143 acres and its estimated value is $42,000. A 1600-acre tract located in Kona, Hawaii, is put in at $5000, and the Liliha street property in Honolulu is valued at $4000.

The plantation of the Hind estate in Kohala is put in as personal property, and estimated to be worth $101,767. The plantation store in addition is put in at $28,050. Of the $191,531 valuation, the buildings and fences on the plantation are estimated to be worth $10,000; the homestead, $3000; landing at Honolulu, $5000; cash on hand, $864; coal on hand, $1050; growing crops of cane, $35,000; machinery other than sugar, $29,000; sugar mills and machinery, $36,000; sugar on hand, 375½ tons, $16,879; cattle, horses and mules, $7,195; sugar unaccounted for, 797 tons, $38,975, and buildings, $2700.

The inventory of stocks throws some interesting light from a legal point of view upon their estimated values. The inventory, giving a valuation of $50,790, follows:

Shares	Par	Esti- mated value
94 Kohala Club and Transfer Co.	$20 $15	$1,410
15 Waiakua Plantation Co.	100 50	750
14 Hilo-Tel. Co.	25 25	350
50 Kohala Tel. Co.	10 10	500
472 Oahu R. & L. Co.	100 50	42,480
12 Union Mill Co.	100 50	600
809 McBryde Sugar Co.	20 5.25	4,200
5 Western Hawaiian I. Co.	100 100	500
Total		$50,790

The two life insurance policies are both with the New York Life; one is for $40,000; the other for $10,143.70.

HUMPHREYS WILL PRESIDE.
Judge Robinson announced yesterday that the regular May term of Circuit Court would end next Saturday, as Memorial Day is not a legal holiday in the Territory. Judge Humphreys will immediately call a special term, providing that Chief Justice Frear makes the required order.

MURDER TRIAL IN AUGUST.
George Ferris, charged with murder in the first degree, entered a plea of not guilty yesterday, and his trial was set for the August term. Assistant Attorney General Donahitt objected to such a long postponement as asked by the defense, but Attorney Reynolds insisted that Ferris had friends in Ohio and California who would testify to his good character, and their presence might be required at the trial. Mr.
Donahitt stated that the witnesses were seafaring men and would have to be paid a dollar a day to hold them in jail. Reynolds replied that seamen would just as soon spend their time in jail as not, and Judge Robinson continued the case, stating that the defendant was on trial for his life, and should be given every opportunity for a fair trial.

THE HALL CASE.
J. W. Hall, charged with rape, was put on trial in Circuit Court yesterday afternoon. The prosecuting witness, Eliza Holt, and her father, were the only witnesses examined during the afternoon. The case is likely to occupy several days. The following jury is considering the evidence: L. K.

Sheldon, H. G. Wooten, Geo. W. Farr, J. W. Akana, W. H. Babbitt, Wm. H.
Thornton, Chas. L. Dickerson, D.
Timmons, A. F. Cooke, Henry Zerbe, John A. Legros and A. D. Larnach.
MURANAKA AGAIN.

The case of Muranaka, the Japanese who is charged with larceny, and who is believed to have died since the last term of court, was called up again yesterday. It has not been proven to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant is dead, or that the body of the Jap found in Manoa valley some time ago, was that of Muranaka. Until that is proven his bondsmen will have to live up to the $250 bond.

COURT NOTES.
Executions were returned yesterday in the cases of C. Yakmann vs. John S.
Chandler, and Bishop & Co. vs. K.
Matsumoto. In the latter case Sheriff Chillingworth reported that no property of defendant could be found to satisfy the judgment of $1075.50.

Notice of appeal has been filed by the heirs in the matter of the will of David Kahana, in which Judge Gear held the document to be invalid.

A demurrer has been filed by Victor Hoffman, through his attorney, J. W.
Catheart, to the plea in abatement made by defendant in the case of Victor Hoffman et al. vs. J. H. Fisher.

Notice to produce deed has been given in the case of John Kidwell vs.
Frank Godfrey.
The decree has been filed by Judge Gear in the case of Reineke Rodnet vs.
Eugene V. Todd et al. The plaintiff is allowed the sum of $4936.96 for money advanced by her in caring for the children of A. A. Todd, together with $500 spent for her adopted child, and $500 for services as care-taker of the estate.
Smith and Lewis, and L. J. Warren are allowed an attorney's fee of $150 and George Davis a fee of $75. Plaintiff is also allowed to borrow money if no purchaser for the real estate can be secured.

Notice of appeal was filed yesterday from the decision of Judge Humphreys in the case of T. B. Cummings vs. Geo.
H. Markham.

Bishop Willis filed his final report yesterday as guardian of John K. Bolster, and his application for discharge was granted and the accounts approved by Judge Humphreys. The guardian reports a balance of $508.34, which was paid into court.

A demurrer was filed yesterday by defendants in the case of Halston Iron Works vs. J. P. Mendonca et al.
Judge Robinson heard additional evidence yesterday morning in the Sylva divorce case. The plaintiff was on the stand and testified that it would require testimony of $50 per month for the support of herself and two children.
The hearing will be resumed this morning at 9 o'clock.
